

BRAZILIAN CARNAVAL AT GLOBALFEST

SATURDAY, Aug 27.

9:30 pm -10:30 pm - 11:30 pm

Eduardo Mendonça from the Seattle group Show Brazil! & Mario Allende from Bomba & local musicians and dancers. Eduardo is a native of Salvador, Bahia, Brazil, and a Mamabeka "prophet of the royal court", title inherited from his African background. Living in the Seattle area for the past 7 years, travels throughout North America, since the time of Bakra Bata steel drum band, and nowadays with Show Brazil! <http://www.showbrazil.com> leads Carnaval in many places such as Seattle and Vancouver. He has played with Paul Simon and Olodum, and at Folk and other Festivals, as well as in special occasions such as for Nelson Mandela, Eduardo is a GRAMMY voting member.

Mario Allende, from the Band BOMBA (Drums, Timbales, Vocals) - Born in Chile and raised in Canada. A studied yet emotional player.

Ricardo Fonseca, a keyboard player from Calgary. With a Portuguese background, his passion for Brazilian music reflects on his playing style. He played with Banda D'Andeia in our Carnaval 2004.

Doug Gelley: Bass & Percussion He loves Brazilian music (plays surdo in the Calgary Samba School, former bass player for Strugglah)

Our Brazilian Presence

During the four days of the festival the Brazilian Association will be actively present at the French-Canadian Hall, come visit with us!

- This unique pavilion represents the Maghreb (Mauritania, Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Lybia), Congo, France, Brazil and Canada. In true multiculturalism form, this pavilion is a tapestry of countries with a common thread.
- This year the pavilion pays special attention to the relationship between the francophone movement and Brazil, as 2005 is the year that France celebrates Brazil.
- Experience the rich dance traditions of Congo mixed with the hot rhythms and dances of Brazil, samba, frevo and capoeira. Capoeira, a Brazilian martial arts performed with dance and music, will amaze you.
- Delight in an array of food choices from Quebec, France, North Africa, Congo and Brazil. Look out for the exotic drinks such as "Caipirinha" and the refreshing Brazilian beer.
- Take part, with the Calgary Maghrebine Association, in cooking demo on "couscous" and "mint tea" preparation.
- Experience Brazilian carnival.
- Bring your kids along for their games and entertainment.
- Commemorate the history of the francophone settlers and 100 years of francophone presence in Alberta.

BOSSA NOVA & Brazilian Pop Music (MPB) LUIS EMILIO RIOS

Thursday, Aug. 25 at 6:30p.m.

Known as Brazilian Jazz, experience the flavour of Bossa Nova and its influences to MPB. Emilio is a guitar player and singer from Cuba, who lived in Sao Paulo, is now a local musician who plays in many venues. Emilio loves Brazilian music. He is a GRAMMY voting member

CAPOEIRA ACHE BRASIL CALGARY

Thu. 8:30pm - Fri. 6:30pm – Sun.2:30 pm
Capoeira began evolving from African slave, indigenous and Portuguese influences in Brazil around 400 years ago, through to the last century to become two styles today Angola and Regional. Capoeira is now practiced as a martial arts.

Capoeira is played one-on-one as a game in a circle of other players, to music and songs that speaks of life, love and former figures in capoeira history.

BRAZILIAN BBQ

A traditional style Brazilian BBQ will be served throughout the festival. Try the "heart of rump", chicken, or sausage or a bit of everything... with specially selected side dishes you will never forget how good it is!

REUSABLE BAGS: Help the Environment & SOS Mata Atlantica
